

AT 112 EAST EIGHTEENTH STREET NOW.

BEMIMBERED THE BAYMONDS.

"Do you remember a Mr. and Mrs. Raymond, who boarded at the house at that time?"

Oh, yes, very well indeed. They had been boarding there some time when I went to the house."

"What sort of a woman was Mrs. Ray-

She was a very nice lady, indeed, I week."

Do you know why Mrs. Raymond went that she went to live with some of her family

WEIGHT ALSO PLACE'S FRIEND.

Lawyer Wright, who figured as Mrs

MRS. PLACE AND THE BEFEREE. There seems to be a difference of opinion as to whether Mrs. Flack appeared before the

WAS SHE PERSONATED?

ated Mrs. Flack?

This is a question that should be thoroughly sifted so that no doubt should remain.

It now seems probable that Mrs. Flack will press the matter, and if a wrong has been committed, she will see that it is righted.

entirely unnecessary.

Is it possible that there has been an imposition and that some other person has person-ated Mrs. Flack?

In the Sunday World.

BILL NYE LOST IN THE CATACOMBS.
BELVA LOCKWOOD ON PARISIAN MORALS.
AMELIE RIVES OUTDONE.
HOW THE BIG RACERS ARE NURSED.
COLUMNS OF MISCELLANY.

"BLIND LOVE." Don't Forget Wilkie Collins's Last and Greatest

Romance Now Running in the Sunday World.

PRICE ONE CENT.

The Missing Link in the Flack

Divorce Case Found.

A Pretty Brunette and Her Seventeen-

Year-Old Son.

"Mr. Raymond" Was Only at Home

Occasionally and in the Evening.

Remarkable Contradictions About

the Reference.

WRIGHT ALSO FLACK'S FRIEND.

Did Some One Personate Mrs. Flack

Before Referee Mecks ?

The identity of the mysterious co-respondent in the now notorous Flack divorce proceedings seems to ha e been definitely estab-

She now appears to be a " Mrs. Raymond."

been living toge he: in various boarding houses in this city for a number of years post, as many as twen y some say, without

There is a boy, Eddie, who is now seventeen years old, who calls "Mr. Raymond" papa, and "Mrs. Raymond" mamma, and who has been receiving his education at St.

Paul's Preparatory School at Concord, N. H.

The last pince where Mr. and Mrs. Raymond lived together was at the boarding-house of Mr. and Mrs. Meissner, at 26 West trior to April last they had occupied an elegant suit of rooms there for two or three years, and were regarded by the other boarders in the bouse as a most respectable couple.

Mrs. Raymond, who was a bright, handsome and entertaining little woman, was yery popular with the other ladies in the

A BEAUTIFUL BRUNEITE.

she did not appear to be more than twenty five. Her beauty was of the brunette type, and her eyes were of the deep violet hue so rare among women of this style of beauty.

and pleasing figure. MR. RAYMOND."

enjoy more home comfort.

She was about thirty five years old, though

She is a so described as possessing a plump

"Mr. Raymond" was more retiring in his habits. He reldom mingled with his fellow-boarders, and was only at home semi-occa-

evening, and as long as he remained in the bosom of his family as always had his meals served in his own apartments.

The other people in the house also remarked that he was never seen about in the daytime, and as it was his custom to pass at the most only two or three evenings a week "at home" they imagined that he must be a very busy man, and frequently condoled with Mrs. Raymond that her husband should be so pressed with business that he could not

MRS. RAYMOND UNDISTURBED.

Mrs. Raymond, however, did not appear to be at all disturbed by her husband's irregularities.

She only smiled when any attempt was made to draw from her the secret of his business or something more definite in regard to their family affairs.

business or something more definite in regard to their family affairs.

Every Summer Mr. and Mrs. Raymond used to disappear regularly to some resort, taking with them Eddie, who had come home from school on his Summer vacation, and when they reappeared in the Fall Eddie was back again at school.

This went on for several years, and no suspense of the several search of the several search of the several search of the several search of the search of picious were excited until one evening last picions were excited until one evening last Spring a triend of Mr. Meissuer happened to call in the evening.

Just as he was taking his departure at the front door, "Mr. Raymond" came in.

The caller stared at the gentleman very hard as he passed by and went up stars and then turning to Mr. Meissner remarked;

"Well, you are in luck if that man's your friend an'i you care anything about having a nice little berth in the city government."

'Why, what do you mean?" inquired Mr.
Meissuer in amazemen. "That's Mr. Ray-Meissuer in smazement, "That's Mr. Raymond and he has been boarding at my house

"BAYMOND, WHY THAT'S PLACE."

"Raymond!" exclaimed the other.

'Why, man, that's Flack, the Sheriff of the sity and county of New York."

Mr. Meissner was completely flabbergasted, but his friend told him he could not be mistaken, for although he did not know Flack personally, he had seen him a great many times and recognized him at once.

THE BAYMONDS LEAVE.

A little domestic investigation ensued the apparently any fear of detection.

under which name the Sheriff is said to have away?"

No. I was not there at the time. I heard to have lished.

Fifteenth street.

NEW YORK, SATURDAY, AUGUST 3, 1889.

result of which was that Mr. and Mrs. Raymond packed up their belongings and disappeared for parts unknown.

That is, the lady did, though "Mr. Raymond" could always be found in a certain comfortable office downtown not so very far from the City Hall.

About May I be Maissner family backs up

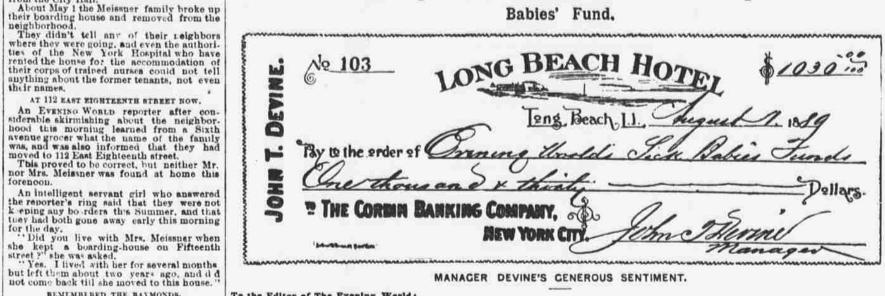

THAT BANNER CONTRIBUTION.

THAT BANNER CONTRIBUTION.

That BANNER CONTRIBUTION.

That BANNER CONTRIBUTION.

The Evening World's "Sick Received for "The Babies' Fund.

MANAGER DEVINE'S GENEROUS SENTIMENT.

To the Editor of The Evening World:

We take much pleasure in remitting to you the inclosed check for $1,030, which represents the gross receipts of our beautiful little fair of last evening given by the ladies of the hotel, for the benefit of the Sick Babies' Fund, so generously inaugurated by your

That the "Banner Contribution," as you are pleased to call it, will not long remain in the van of such a worthy and deserving barity is the beartfelt wish of the management and of the Indies of the Long Beach Hotel. Very truly. Aug. 1, 1880. JOHN T. DEVINE, Mauager Long Beach Hotel.

SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.

prices current were the highest of the week.

THE QUOTATIONS.

1103-1961-441-1033-

43%

Chicago & Fastern III pfd.
Cel & Hocking Valley.
Couselidated Gaz.
Del. Lack & Western
Dist & Cattle Feeders Tr
Lake Shore
Lake Erie & Western pfd.
Long Island.

Lake Erne & Western ofd.
Long Island.
Leunswille & Nashville
Louis, New Ath & Chic
Mil. L. S. & West. pfd.
Missert Pacinc.
Nat. Lead Trust.
N. Y. Law Erne & West.
Northern Pacinc vid.
Or Transcontinental
Pipe Line certificates
Philadelpine & Reiving.
Rich. & W. F. Ter.
St. Louis Asan Fran.
Texas Pacific
Wahsan, St. L. & Pacific

St. Louis & Dan I.
Sugar Friest.
Tenn. Coat & Iron
I. Ar. Arbert N. M.
Union Pacific
Wabash. St. L. & Pac. of Wabash. St. L. & Pac. pf.
Western Union Telegraph.
Wheeling & Lake Erie

Sullivan's Mother Prestrated.

ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]

Boston, Aug. 3. - Mrs. Sullivan, the venerable mother of John L., is completely prostrated by the news of her son's arrest in New York, and Furnishing Goods on Fire.

Benjamin Bernstein's furnishing goods store, at 779 Broadway, was damaged $3,000 early this morning by a fire that broke out in the basement. The cause of the outbreak is un-known. Loss insured.

Argentine Minister.

John B. G. Pitkin, of Louisians, has been appointed Minister to the Argentine Republic.

"Pride of the Kitchen" is the name of the best thought.

'She was rather stout, but very pretty and had black hair and blue eyes.

'Can you describe Mr. Raymond?"

'I didn't see much of him, but I remember that he was a short, stout man, with very black hair and a heavy black mustache.

'He always used to have his meals upstairs when he was at home.

'I only saw him sometimes going in or coming out. He never cause except in the hight time, and sometimes he would not be some for several days.

'He usually was at home two or three nights a week." appear and that she was personated by some one else. That is malicious and false!"

CONTRADICTIONS. Joseph Meeks, the referee, made this "I think the Sheriff must be mistaken in his statement that Mrs. Flack appeared." "Do you know Mrs. Flack personally, and could you identify her and could you identify her as the person presumed to be Mrs. Flack?" DECLINES TO ANSWER. "I decline to answer." was all he said.

Judge Henry W. Bookstaver feels provoked at the scandul, and is loath to believe that he has been imposed upon.

"The story told by Mrs. Flack is astounding, and if she is to be believed, there has been gross deception somewhere," said he.

"But the paper- are all regular, and the only way the case can be reopened is by Mrs. Flack coming here.

uptown."

It is said that before Mrs. Raymond assumed that name she was a Miss Cherry, who kept a boarding-house with her two sisters.

"Mr. Raymond" fell in love with her and spent a great deal of money educating her, engaging singing and music teachers for her. Flack coming here.
"I have seen the lawyers in the case and they all deny that there has been any fraud

THE DECREE. Flack's counsel, is a warm personal friend of Sheriff Flack. Wright and Flack were among the organizers of the once famous Sparta Club, which flourished in the wentieth Assembly District a few years

Judge Bookstaver consented to read the decree, which is as follows:

Judge Bookstaver consented to read the decree, which is as follows:

At a special term of the Court of Common Pieas or the City and County of New York, held in the New Court House in said city, on the tectifth day of July, 1889, the Hon. Henry Bookstaver, Judge.

Mary E. Flack agt James A. Flack.
This action having been brought on to be heard; upon the complaint herein and upon the proof of the defendant's failure to answer, said complaint and upon the report of Joseph Meeks, duly appointed referee in this action, from which it appears that all the material facts alleged in the complaint are true, and that the defendant has been smitty of the several acts of adultery therein charged:

Now, on motion of Benjamin Wright, attornicy for the plaintiff, it is ordered that the report of Joseph Meeks, referee aforesaid, be and the same hereby is in all shings confirmed.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the marriage between the plaintiff, Mary E. Flack, and the defendant, James A. Flack, be dissolved, and the said parties are, and each of them is, free from the obligations thereof.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that it is missingly, and the said parties are, and each of them is, free from the obligations thereof.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that it is further ordered, and the said parties are, and each of them is, free from the obligations thereof.

There seems to be a difference of opinion as to whether Mrs. Flack appeared before the referee and testified.

Mrs. Flack asserts most positively that she did not. Sheriff Flack is equally as atrong in his assertion that Mrs. Flack did appear and was present during the hearing of the case.

The statements of others connected with the case are very contradictory.

Judge Henry W. Bookstaver, before whom the suit was brought, says that from the appearance of the papers he feels sure that sae did appear. He remembers seeing a paper signed by her in the presence of the referee.

Lawyer Benjamin Wright, who figures in the matter as the attorney for Mrs. Flack, says that she did not appear at any of the hearings, and Referee Meeks, when told that Sheriff Flack had asserted that his wife was present at the hearings, contented himself by saving that the Sheriff must be mistaken.

These contradictory statements, coming as they do from the principals in this sensational case look suspicious to say the least.

Was SHE PERSONATED?

thereof.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that it shall be lawful for the said Mary E. Flack, the plaintiff, to marry again, the same as if the defendant was actually dead. But it shall not be lawful for the said James A. Flack to marry again until the said Mary E. Flack shall be actually dead.

Ent. H. W. Bookstaver, J. C. P.

"According to my recollection, Mrs. Flack appeared before the referee—that is, I was led to believe so by the papers. I think I remember seeing a statement in the papers which was signed in the presence of the referee by her."

SHOCKED BY LIGHTNING.

ommitted, she will see that it is righted.

It has been ascertained that she did not in person retain the counsel who appeared for her, and that he never saw her during the hearing of the case.

"I must decline to say who retained me," said Lawver Wright. "It is sufficient to say During the progress of the storm this morning Capt. Gorman, of the Sixteenth Precinct Brooklyn Police, was sitting at his desk in the said Lawver Wright. "It is sufficient to say that I was retained by a person in whom was vested the right." station at Lee avenue and Clymer street when a flash of lightning struck the tall flagstaff on NEVER SAW MBS. FLACE. the building, splitting it in twain, and descend-Mr. Wright said that he was present at the hearings but that Mr. Flack was not. It was ing downward caused a shower of electric ing downward caused a shower of electric sparks to fly from a network of telegraph and to thouse wires close to the Captain's feet.

"My limbs began to tremble and I shook like a leat," said Capt, Gorman, in telling the story at Folice Headquarters.

"I was dazed and blinded, and for a few mo-Have you ever seen Mrs. Flack?" he was asked.

Mr. Wright declined to answer the question at first, but later on he admitted that he I was dazed and binded, and for a few moments was powerless to move.

'It was a sudden and unexpected experience which I hope will not be re-peated again.

Capt. Gorman is a coo-headed man, and does not let an ordinary affair worry him, but he admit-his total inability to cope with a streak of tion at first, but have on he samuted that he had never seen the plaintiff.

"The entire proceedings from beginning to end were regular; if they were not I should have the case reopened. The decree is not final and the case can be brought up again at any time."
Sheriff Flack's statement that 'the action was concemplated for a long time "is rather significant. A question that may be asked is. How did he know that the plaintiff was going lightning.

The station-house was shaken up considerably by the lightning, but no damage beyond that referred to was done.

INSPECTOR OF SEWERS.

Walter G. Keech, an Eighth Assembly District l'ammany Hall man, was to-day appointed an Inspector of Paving, at a salary of $1,500, by Commissioner of Public Works Gilroy. He suc-seeds John Cockroft, a County Democrat, resigned.
Commissioner Gilroy also created a new office
—Inspector of Sewers—and appointed John C.
Dowling to it, at a salary of $4 per day.
Dowling is a Twenty-third Ward Tammanyite.

If you awake with a splitting Headache, take one dose of Bradverotine. Lie still for 15 minutes, and your Headache will all disappear. "."

DANBURY'S FIRE-BUGS AGAIN. Three Fires Started this Morning-An Assistant Engineer Hurt.

DANBURY, Conn., August 3. — Three more cases of incendiarism occurred here this morn-An Aged Couple Tramp All the Way ing between the hours of 2 and 4 o'clock, makfrom Pittsburg ing twenty-three within the last fourteen The places fired were the old Bartram & Fanton sewing-machine factory, the Housaranon sewing-machine factory, the housa-tonic railroad shops and Beers's number yard. Kero-ene and waste were used to start the fires, but the flames were discovered early and little damage resulted. Assistant Engineer Callagher, of the Fire De-partment, received perhaps fatal injuries by a fall downstairs while responding to the first alarm. A gray-baired Danish couple, Herrman Peterson and his wife, Christiana, are resting in Castle Garden this morning, after walking all the way from Pittsburg. They want to go back to Denmark. The honest, old couple embarked at Hamburg three years ago, and came to this The Day in Wall Street.

country on the steamship Westphalia. Then Stocks were dull, but strong, this morning. they travelled away out West to live with and when the gong sounded at 12 o'clock the their married daughter, who was a farmer's wife at Okalia, Neb.
All went well for two and a half years, and The report that the roads in the Interstate Railway Association had determined to make Railway Association had determined to make war upon the Chicago & Alton was much discussed, but it failed to have any effect upon the market.

The big crops in this country and the shortage in Europe account for the change from depression to attength that has recently taken place in Wall street. The banks this week gain $1,127,100 in surplus reserve and now hold $8,216,175 in excess of the 25 per cent. Legal requirement. The following are the comparative figures

Loans. $416,781,300 $410,004,000 Dec. $3,738,700 Spects $42,30,200 Th. 100,800 Inc. $121,600 Deg. $43,301,700 $434,401,300 Dec. $2,800 Dec. $3,000 Dec

All went well for two and a nair years, and then their son-in-law had his arm cut off by a reaping machine. The son was no longer able to care for the old folks. The home was broken up, and the old people were thrown on their own resources.

They decided to go back to their o'd village and home in Donmark. It was good enough for them. But they were 5,000 miles from

The people of Okalla, Neb., are not very rich. However, they raised a subscription, and got together enough money to buy the old couple tickets to Chicago. Then they put three broiled chickens, six mince pies, some bread and butter and huckleberry-jam food with in Chicago.

The aged Dane kept the $4 instead of buy-

The aged Dane kept the $4 instead of buying anything to eat with it, and closed a contract with a Chicago railway company to take him and his wife to Pittsburg in a freight car for $4. They reached P.ttsburg a month ago, penniless and without food.

Then then the gray-hsired old man of sixtyeight, and his wife of sixty-seven years, started to walk from Pittsburg all the way to New York. It is 500 miles by the shortest railway route; as the highways run it is 600 miles.

rew lors, it is soo miles by the shortest railway route; as the highways run it is 600 miles.

They set out on foot. Day after day the old couple trudged over hill and through valley. They slept in the fields and on the roadside.

On stormy nights, when the rain poured down, the Pennsylvania farmers let them aloep in their barns. They had shelter on the month's journey only when it rained.

Frequently they were refused food and sometimes they had to walk many miles, weak with hunger and almost famishing.

They suffered a great deal.

At last they got to the Orange Mountains and saw the spires of New York. They walked over the Jersey meadows on the railway track to Jersey City, cryssed the North River to New York and went directly to Castle Garden.

The old man looked very neat after so long a journey. As he told his story to a reporter this morning through Interpreter Smith tears filled his eyes and the eyes of his wife.

Supt. Jackson says emigrants who have been permitted to enter the country are never returned by the Commissioners.

Supt. Jackson says emigrants who have been permitted to enter the country are never returned by the Commissioners. The Danes in New York will probably look after the interests of the old coup.e.

An Old Man in the River.

The body of an old man, sixty-five or seventy of his being taken to Mississippi.
She has been very ill for some time, and efforts were made to prevent her from hearing of the arrest, but by some means she obtained the inyears old, with a long gray beard, was washed up against the canal-boat Elmira, at the foot of East Fifty-seventh street, early this morning. formation.

A call at the house last evening revealed anxious countenances, and an eager inquiry for good news greeted the reporter. Mike Sullivan, brother of the pugilist, returned from New York yesterday. Capt. Charles Smith made it fast to the shore. The body had been a long time in the water. It was clothed in dark trousers, white shirt and check vest.

Bill Nye Narrates Certain Unpleasant Experiences While Seeing the Sights in Paris. In the SUNDAY WOELD.

Mexico Would Have a World's Pair, Too. IBY CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION 1 CITY OF MEXICO, Aug. 3 .- The Yberic Soiety and Press Association are urging a movement for an international exposition to celebrate the four hundredth anniversary of the discovery

They Never Fail to Cure Sick Headache.

And a Divorce Granted to Mrs. Yan Auken in Delaware.

Startling Sequel to Her Marriage with Judge Andrews.

Lawyer Judge, the Judge's Friend, and Lawyer Judge a Friend of the Lady.

The marriage of Supreme Court Judge George P. Andrews to Mrs. Catherine Van Auken, in London, on Tuesday, has assumed a curious and disagreeable phase. In the early part of last January there apprared in Wilmington, Del., two handsomely iressed women and a man. They leased a fine house on Van Buren street, in the fashionable part of the city, and furnished it in aborate style.

They made no friends in the neighborhood and their exclusiveness was much commented upon. The man gave out that he was John H. Judge, a New York lawyer.

Not long after the new arrivals had installed themselves on Van Buren street notices began to appear in the papers to the | fled with their long journey. effect that Mrs. Catherine M. Van Auken intended applying to the Delaware Legislature for a divorce from her husband, Barrett H Van Auken. Just before the session of the Legislature was being brought to a close Mrs. Van Auken appeared before the Committee on Divorce. This was late in April.

Col. E. T. Cooper, a lawyer and lobbyist of some prominence, who resides in Dover, appeared in the capacity of Mrs. Van Auken's appeared in the capacity of Mrs. Van Auken's counsel.

Mr. Judge was there, too, as was also Mrs. Van Auken's daughter. Thus the identity of the exclusive personages on Van Buren street was disclosed.

As Mrs. Van Auken was known to be the daughter of Commodore Garrison newspaper men began inquiries. At Col. Cooper's request, however, the news was suppressed, and nothing was heard of the case. The Committee on D.vorce met in secret, but the Secretary of the Committee was a newspaper correspondent, and the only one who knew the story as told to the Committee.

Mrs. Van Auken related that she had married Barrett H. Van Auken in 1859.

After living with him three or four years she suddenly discovered that he was insane.

He was placed in an insane asylum and she suddenly discovered that he was insane.

He was placed in an insane saylum and kept some time, and, it is said, recovered his reason.

Then he was released, but after several years had elaped Mrs. Van Auken found that his mind had again given way.

Then she learned that her husband had been insane at some period prior to their marriage, and she appeared to be very saidigmant when relating this part of the story to the Committee.

the Committee.
Again was Mr. Van Auken hustled off to an asylum and Mrs. Van Auken settled $15,000 on him, determined not to live with him any on him, determined not to live with him any longer.

The money was placed in a trust company at 6 per cent. interest.

Papers were produced to show that the money was still intact.

Mrs. Van Auken guaranteed that the allowance would be paid as fixed during Mr. Van Auken's lifetime.

The Committee hesitated some time before reporting on the case. Finally it went with a reporting on the case. Finally it went with a rush through both houses and Mrs. Van Auken was iree.

She did not stay long in Wilmington after accomplishing her object, but tarried long enough to give Col. Cooper and Gov. Biggs a very plea-ant dinner.

Now comes a question which looms up with a great big interrogation mark behind it.

There has arisen a doubt that the divorce will not stand.

There has arisen a doubt that the divorce will not stand.

Under the laws of the State of Delaware it is said that to obtain a divorce a person must be a resident of the State.

Also that a person to be a citizen must come to the State with the intention of taking up a permanent occupation there, and furthermore that he or she must remain for one year before being entitled to the privileges of ouizenship.

Mrs. Van Auken, it is claimed, only rented the Van Buren street establishment and never established a residence in the city.

Mr. John H. Judge is a lawyer at 71 Broadway, but when the reporter called there this morning he was out of town.

It is a curious tact, however, that the cable des, atch which amounced the marriage of Judge Ancrews and Mrs. Van Auken was sent to Lawyer W. N. Armstrong at 71 Broadway.

And, curiously enough, the notice of the marriage and the facts attendant thereon, as printed in The Evening Wonld, were indersed with the name of John H. Judge, who admitted that he was Judge Andrews's friend. admitted that he was Judge Andrews's friend. Where Barrett H. Van Auken is no one knows. He was an inmate of Sandford Hall.

Flushing, until five or six years ago.

Then Lawyer Leonard, of 128 Broadway, made an attempt to get him out on habes corpus proceedings. He was not acting for any of Mr. Van Auken's near relatives, how-

The attempt failed, for the papers were returned with the declaration that Van Auken was still insene. Then Van Auken was removed to another svium, no one knows where.

It was asserted, when the news of the marthe mass asserted, when the news of the mar-riage was first received, that Mr. Van Auken died in an asylum several years ago. Subsequent developments prove that such was not the case. If he were dead there would have been no necessity for the divorce would have been no necessity for the divorce proceedings.

The events in Judge and Mrs. Andrews's life read almost like a romsnee, Judge Andrews and Barrett Van Atken having been years ago rival suitors for the hand of Miss Catherine Garrison, and Van Auken having come off the victor.

PRICE ONE CENT.

Paddy McCarthy Puts Him to Sleep in the Seventh Round.

Heavy Fighting Near Jerome Park Race Track This Morning.

Well Known Sports Stayed Up All Night to See the Mill.

Billy Golden, of this city, and Paddy Me-Carthy, of Brooklyn, fought a rattling sevenround fight in a barn close to the Jerdme Park race-course at an early hour this morn-

There were about one hundred well-known gentlemen of the turf present who came up from Monmouth Park and the beach to witness a good " scrap." It proved a very interesting affair to all hands and made all satis-

The scene at the ring-side was very pic-

The scene at the ring-side was very picturesque.

Men of big purses sat by the side of colored trainers, while near by were well-known horse owners, wearing silk tenns shirts and busily fanning themselves in order to get a little fresh ar.

The fight was to have taken place late at night, in order to let all hands get back to the city at a reasonable hour, but Golden and his seconds missed a train and did not arrive on the scene till after midnight.

The fight was ror a stake of $200 and a purse of the same amount. purse of the same amount.

The principals were one-ounce gloves and they fought under Marquis of Queensberry Henry Husemeyer, the well-known sport-

Henry Husemeyer, the well-known sporting man, acted as stakeholder, and Johnny Reagan, who is matched to meet "Young" Mitchell in California, acted as referce. That old veteran "Sugar" Murphy held the watch for McCarthy and Jimmy Lynch did the same for Golden.

McCarthy has fought a number of hard battles. He is twenty-one years of age, stands 5 feet 4 inches in height and weighs 12654 pounds. He was looked after by Eugena Hornbecker and "Spider" Miller.

Billy Golden defeated all in his class as an smateur. This was his maiden fight as a professional. He is twenty-two years of age, stands 5 feet 7 inches in height, weighed 125 pounds. He was squired by Jack Mechamani Jack Kenney, the Harlem feather-weight.

weight.

Both men were clad in the customary ring
Both men were clad in the pink of condition.

Both men were clad in the customary ring costume and looked in the pink of condition.

Time was called shortly after 1 a. m. for the first round.

Golden and McCarthy !coked confident as they toed the mark, a smile playing around Golden's mouth.

They lost no time but sailed in at one another. McCarthy lauding heavily on the stomach, getting a rib-roaster in return, and in the breakaway receiving another hot one full on the nose that made the crimson flew.

McCarthy didn't seem to relish this and gave Golden a telling blow on the side of the head that made him spin around. The round closed in a clinch.

closed in a clinch.

The betting was 5 to 4 on McCarthy, but after the first round it reversed and Golden became the favorite.

Second Round—Golden started operations by getting in two good ones on McCarthy's body without a return. McCarthy was rest-ing himself and didn't seem to mind Golden's rushes. en's rushes.

After a spell of light sparring McCarthy shot out his left, landing on Golden's neck with terrilic force.

The third was another hot round with honors about even. Golden kept up leading and planted two stingers on the stomach.

getting one on the mouth in return. Billy tried to rish his man, but soon found it was no go, as he got a smash on the nose that floored him. Both were in a clinch as time was called.

called.

The fourth was a terrific round, both men getting used up pretty well. McCarthy sprang at his man and rained blow after blow on face and body, while Golden was equally as busy thumping his opponent's face into a mash of jelly. The round ended by McCarthy falling on his knees,

Nothing of importance transpired in the fifth round, as both men were sparring for wind.

For the sixth round both men came up looking fresh. McCarthy was the first to lead, getting in a ni e one over Golden's heart, and following it up with a left hander on the jaw that sent Golden once more to the floor. floor, He was on his feet quickly, however, and steadied himself, and rushed McCarthy all around the rivg, getting in an upper cut that came within an acc of settling the fight. Both men were groggy as they went to their corners. AlcCarthy came up the fresher looking, and without a moment's delay, sailed away to finish his man.

Blow after blow he inflicted on his op-ponent's neck and jaw, Golden seeming to be helpless as he never offered to give any m return.

Finally McCarthy swung his right on the point of his opponent's jaw, knocking Golden senseless to the floor, where he lay for five

McCarthy was awarded the stakes and The time of fight was 26 minutes eighteen records.

The loser was presented with $25 by Henry

Bill Nye Narrates Certain Unpleasant Experiences While Seeing the Sights in Paris. In the Sunday World.

Sunday

BILL NYE IN THE CATACOMBS.

how did he know that the plaintiff was going to bring any action?

"I don't believe that she has denied bring-ing the suit," he said. "She could not say so, for we taked the matter over for a long time and she knew what was to be done."

PLACE SAYS SHE DID APPEAR.

In regard to Mrs. Flack's statement that she had never been cited to appear before a referce, had never appeared and knew nothing of any divorce proceedings, he said:

"I don't know why she says this. I tell you that she did appear before the referce. The hearing was held at the house and she was present.

was present.
There are insinuations that she did not in the Paris Pantheon.

rounds the Horses' Stables.

HOW THE RACERS ARE NURSED.

JERUSALEM, THE HOLY CITY.

Like Mirage in the Desert it Van- A Bird's-Eye View from a Housetop on Mount Zion.

unday World

CO

Belva Lockwood's Observations of

Parisian Immorality.

SOCIAL EVILS IN FRANCE.

AMELIE RIVES OUTDONE.

WILKIE COLLINS'S LAST STORY. Don't Fail to Read "Blind Love,"

now running in the Sunday World.

COLUMNS OF MISCELLANY.

Read

Read

He Gets Lost Among the Tombs The Queer Community which Sur-

DR. BROWN-SEQUARD'S ELIXIR. ishes Before Science.

bles and Quivers with Passion.

Another Gushing School-Girl Trem- A Page of Humor and a Page for the Children.